

Farm Work Software Receives “2008 Service Award” from Purdue University

West Lafayette, IN – April 17, 2008 – Purdue University’s Department of Agricultural and Biological Engineering recognized Brian Stark and Farm Works Software as one of its 2008 Outstanding Service Award Winners.

This award honors friends of the ABE department who have made significant professional, community, educational and social accomplishments in areas involving agriculture, engineering and technology.

Brian Stark started his career with Farm Works Software in 1996 as a Sales and Support Specialist. After spending the first eight years of his career in sales, Stark was promoted to domestic sales manager in 2004. As the grower base continued to exceed expectations, Farm Works transitioned Stark into global marketing in 2007.
